POLLING PLACE CHANGES FOR THE MAY 15, 2007 GENERAL MUNICIPAL ELECTION

Los Angeles City Clerk Frank T. Martinez announced today that the May 15, 2007 General Municipal Election is 6 days away. All registered voters are encouraged to review their Official Sample Ballot before going to vote on Tuesday, May 15, 2007. The location of your polling place is shown on the back cover of your Official Sample Ballot.

The Election Division will be mailing postcards to voters whose polling places have been assigned or changed since receiving their Official Sample Ballots. The postcards will be mailed today and should be received by affected voters on Thursday or Friday of this week. An example of the polling place notice that affected voters will receive appears below.

If you would like to inquire about your polling place, you can visit the Election Division's website at <http://cityclerk.lacity.org/election/> and click on the "Find Your Polling Place and Sample Ballot" link. Web access is available at most public libraries. Voters may also contact the Election Division by telephone toll-free at (888) 873-1000.
