RESIDENCE DEADLINE FOR CANDIDATES FOR THE 2013 PRIMARY NOMINATING ELECTION

LOS ANGELES (September 6, 2012) — Los Angeles City Clerk June Lagmay reminds all candidates who wish to run for City elected offices in the City of Los Angeles Primary Nominating Election on March 5, 2013, that they must reside in the applicable jurisdiction or district in which they are running for office by Saturday, October 6, 2012. Candidates for citywide seats (Mayor, Controller, City Attorney) must be residents within the City of Los Angeles by this date. Candidates for Council seats (Council Districts 1, 3, 5, 7, 9, 11, 13 and 15), and candidates for Los Angeles Unified School District (LAUSD) Board of Education Districts 2, 4 and 6 must be residents within their respective Districts by this date. The deadline is set by City Charter as 30 days preceding November 5, 2012 which is the first day that candidates can file a Declaration of Intention to Become a Candidate. Los Angeles Community College District (LACCD) Board of Trustees candidates are required to be residents of the LACCD District at the time of filing for candidacy (November 5 through 10, 2012). Failure to meet the above residency requirement will disqualify candidates from running for office.

Additionally, to be eligible for election to the City elected offices of Mayor, Controller, City Attorney and Council, a candidate must be a registered within the City. To qualify for election to the LAUSD or LACCD, a candidate must be a registered voter within the LAUSD or the LACCD, respectively.
