Recommendations for Council action, as initiated by Resolution (Alarcon - Garcetti - LaBonge), SUBJECT TO THE CONCURRENCE OF THE MAYOR:

1. ADOPT the accompanying SUBSTITUTE RESOLUTION to include in the City’s 2011-12 State Legislative Program, SUPPORT for:

   a. AB 2026 and SB 1167 and any legislative or administrative action that would result in extension of the California State Film Tax Credit program through the 2019-20 fiscal year.

Additional legislation or administrative action that would expand and increase the amount of tax credits available to television and film productions and to include additional types of productions, specifically productions that support job creation, which are not currently eligible for incentives in the existing tax credit program.

2. SUPPORT new tax credits, specifically a strategic program tailored to commercial production.

3. COMMUNICATION FROM THE CITY ATTORNEY relative to a court issued writ in the case entitled Beverly Wilshire Homes Association v. City of Los Angeles, et al., Los Angeles Superior Court Case No. BS 128935, commanding the City Council to vacate and set aside its September 21, 2010 decision granting a variance permitting off-site parking by lease in lieu of the Code-required covenant for property located at 8480-8482 West Third Street; and to reconsider the variance application in this case.

ADOPTED

PLANNING AND LAND USE MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE REPORT relative to a court issued writ in the case entitled Beverly Wilshire Homes Association v. City of Los Angeles, et al., regarding property located at 8480-8482 West Third Street.

Recommendations for Council action:

1. VACATE and SET ASIDE the prior Council action of September 21, 2010, which denied the appeal filed by Robert Cherno on behalf of the Beverly Wilshire Homes Association and approved a variance to permit 42 required parking spaces through a lease agreement in lieu of a covenant for the property at 8480-8482 West Third Street.
2. RECONSIDER the variance application and appeal by:

   a. Receiving the applicant’s May 4, 2012 written request to consider new evidence of a modified lease in support of the variance;

   b. Finding that the new evidence of a modified lease could not have reasonably been presented to the Zoning Administrator in the earlier proceeding because both the modified lease and the Court’s November 11, 2011 ruling, post-date the earlier Zoning Administrator proceeding; and

   c. Finding that the new evidence of a modified lease might reasonably have led to a different decision by the Zoning Administrator, in that the new evidence might reasonably have supported a finding that a one-year lease for safe, secure, convenient and exclusive off-site parking is available in the area for the required number of restaurant parking spaces.

3. REMAND the matter to the Zoning Administrator to receive the new evidence and issue a new variance determination in light of the new evidence.
