What: Councilmember Bill Rosendahl and LAPD Chief William Bratton will hold a town hall meeting to discuss deployment issues on the Westside.

The LAPD plans to shift officers from stations around the City to staff two new police stations opening next month in the West Valley and Koreatown. Bratton and LAPD top brass will explain how officer deployment decisions are made and report the statistical crime history in Rosendahl's district and how it relates to overall Citywide operations. Rosendahl will moderate a question and answer period for the public following LAPD's presentation.
