GARCETTI ANNOUNCES COMMITTEE ASSIGNMENTS COUNCIL PRESIDENT CREATES NEW COMMITTEE ON JOBS AND BUSINESS GROWTH

Council President Eric Garcetti has announced committee assignments for the new legislative term that began on July 1, 2007. The committee structure and membership remained largely intact, with the creation of a new committee on Jobs, Business Growth, and Tax Reform. The new committee will be chaired by Councilmember Greig Smith.

“These committees reflect the challenges and opportunities Los Angeles faces, building upon the momentum we have generated over the past two years,” said Garcetti. “The creation of the Jobs, Business Growth, and Tax Reform committee will amplify City Hall’s commitment to the health of our economy.”

The new assignments also reorganized the Intergovernmental Relations committee, folding the responsibilities into the Rules and Government committee, chaired by Garcetti. The new committee assignments take effect October 1.
