

Cultural Master Plan Survey

The City of Los Angeles Department of Cultural Affairs (DCA) wants to hear from you.

DCA is creating a new Cultural Master Plan that will develop a shared vision for the role that arts and culture should play in our community, and provide recommendations to further the development of Los Angeles as a national and international artistic center.

We would like to hear from as many people as possible and learn what inspires people about art and culture in LA, what is missing, and what DCA can do to make our shared vision a reality.

We ask that you take a few minutes and complete the survey below. We also ask that you forward this survey to others who may wish to participate. Those who respond by September 23, 2008 will be entered in a drawing for a $500 grand cash prize or tickets to upcoming Cultural Affairs events.

Over the next few months, we will also be holding community meetings throughout the City that will provide additional opportunities to collect your ideas and suggestions. For more information, please visit: <http://www.culturela.org/culturalplan>.
