Los Angeles Historic Resource Survey

What's your Historic L.A.?

Come join us on Saturday, April 4, 2009, in the Mark Taper Auditorium at the historic Los Angeles Central Library: 630 West 5th Street, Los Angeles, CA 90071, from 11:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m., for a special citywide kickoff celebration of SurveyLA, Los Angeles' first-ever comprehensive survey of its historic resources.

While Los Angeles has a rich and diverse cultural heritage and a remarkable architectural legacy, 85% of the city has never been surveyed to identify these significant historic places. Historic preservation professionals conducting the survey cannot know all of the potential historic resources throughout the city - and that's why we need your help. We want to know your special story about a local building or the neighborhood you live in.

Join like-minded amateur historians and Los Angeles aficionados for the public launch of SurveyLA and share your knowledge of L.A.'s hidden gems.

11:00 a.m. - 4:00 p.m.

Learn what you can do to help with this historic survey.

- * Tell us about a lesser-known place that you consider particularly important to your neighborhood or the entire city - YOUR Historic L.A.
- * Participate in an interactive display demonstrating how the survey teams will identify historic sites, and how they will use the information you're providing.
- * Learn how you can bring "MYHistoricLA" to your own neighborhood.
- * Sign up to become a SurveyLA volunteer.
- * Register to receive regular updates as SurveyLA progresses throughout Los Angeles.

11:00 and 11:30 a.m., 12:00 noon, 3:00 and 3:30 p.m.

Enjoy screenings of the award-winning video SurveyLA: Preserving Los Angeles.

1:00 - 2:30 p.m.

Join KPCC-FM's host of Air Talk, Larry Mantle for a lively panel discussion with city officials, preservationists, community organizers and developers discussing the key issues surrounding Los Angeles' citywide survey.
