Holiday Light Festival

December 3 - December 30, 2009
Open every evening from 5 - 10 p.m.

The City of Angels once again transforms into the City of Lights with the Los Angeles Department of Water and Power's Holiday Light Festival at Griffith Park. Dazzling displays of shimmering color, sparkling lights and festive music await visitors. The one mile-long festival now in its 14th year, delights young and old with more than one million energy efficient LED lights. Celebrate with LADWP and make this year's Holiday Light Festival a part of your and your family's holiday tradition.

Kick-Off the Holiday Light Festival with "Bike Night"

Grab your bicycle and helmet and be one of the first to enjoy the festival at the "Bike Night" kick off on Thursday, December 3, from 5:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m. Experienced and novice riders, families and children are encouraged to attend.

Enjoy the Festival "Vehicle Free"

Go green and leave your car behind. Explore the festival up close on our "walking only" evenings from December 4 through December 17 with special treats on December 11, 12 and 13.

Holiday Light Festival On Wheels

Pack up the kids, hop in the car and take in the lights from the comfort of your own vehicle. Driving tours begin December 18 through December 30.

Free parking is available at the LA Zoo parking lot. For more details on driving and walking schedules, please visit www.ladwp.com or www.dwplightfestival.com. You don't want to miss this once-a-year celebration!

Reindeer Romp

A festive atmosphere is everywhere during this holiday event as reindeer fly into the L.A. Zoo. Nov. 26th to Jan. 3rd, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.
