New Horizons' Honors Champions for Disabled

North Hills, CA- New Horizons, a non-profit organization that provides a variety of services to adults with intellectual disabilities, is honoring Los Angeles County Supervisor Zev Yaroslavsky, Vons, Pharmavite, and Richard J. Bartus at its annual gala event, April 22 at the Sheraton Universal. NBC4's Fritz Coleman will emcee the evening, and Beau Boeckmann of Galpin Motors will serve as auctioneer.

“We are thrilled to be honoring important partners who have made significant contributions to empowering people with developmental disabilities,” says Sharon Bryant, chairperson of the event. “This will be an evening of fun, Mardi Gras-style, recognizing the possibilities now available to those with special needs such as autism, mental retardation, cerebral palsy, and seizure disorders.”

New Horizons' Mardi Gras Gala is an annual dinner and auction to raise funds for the organizations' programs and services for more than 800 adults with developmental disabilities throughout the San Fernando and Santa Clarita Valleys. The celebration begins at 6 p.m. on Thursday, April 22. For more information, please visit, www.newhorizons-sfv.org or call 818-894-9301.
