BOYS & GIRLS CLUB OF THE WEST VALLEY HOSTS 7th ANNUAL CLUB DE CUBA

CANOGA PARK, Calif.—The Boys & Girls Club of the West Valley will host its 7th Annual Club de Cuba event Friday, May 6, at the Warner Center Marriot Hotel, 21850 Oxnard St., Woodland Hills. The event supports the Club's afterschool programs for children.

The Caribbean-themed event features an evening of casino gaming and Casino Cash, music, dancing, silent and live auctions, and dinner. This year, a Texas Hold 'em Poker Tournament has been added to the evening's festivities.

Tickets to the event are $100 per person, or $150 for those wishing to participate in the poker tournament. Available sponsorships include tickets, recognition in the invitation, an ad in the San Fernando Valley Business Journal, announcements from the stage, and other promotional opportunities.

For more information or to purchase tickets, contact Jan Sobel at 818-610-1054.

This year's live auction will feature such items as an LAPD helicopter ride for two; a table read for the Simpson's TV show; two tickets and car service to the 2011 Emmy Awards; a Fourth of July four-course gourmet wine dinner for 10 atop the Warner Center Marriott Hotel; Staples Center King's Suite tickets for 24; Dodgers game bat boy/girl; private dinner for 10 at Fleming's Steak House; numerous vacation stays in San Diego, Carmel, Monterey, Las Vegas, and Phoenix; and much more. More than 100 silent auction items will also be available.

"This is a win-win evening for all," said Club President and CEO Jan Sobel. "Our community members and sponsors have the opportunity to enjoy a fun-filled evening, and the children at the Club directly benefit from the evening's festivities."

For further information or to make individual reservations, contact Jan Sobel at the Boys & Girls Club. 818.610.1054.
