

Los Angeles Cactus and Succulent Society's 11th Annual Exhibits and Sale

Learn how landscaping with drought tolerant plants can save you money and water.

- Interior Educational Displays
- Exterior Demonstration Gardens
 - Drawing • Silent Auction
 - Plant and Pottery Sale
 - Craft sales

Saturday's Guest Speakers Include:

Lili Singer, "California Natives in the Garden" (11:15am)

Mike Buckner, "The Art of Staging Succulents" (2:15pm)

Chief Mark Stormes from the LAFD, "Vegetation Management in the Los Angeles City Brush Zone" (1:00pm)

Nels Christianson, "Gardens of Brazil", sponsored by the San Fernando Valley Bromeliad Society (10:00am)

Sunday Kids Day

- Arts and Crafts
- Create Father's Day Gifts
 - Pot -A -Plant
 - Games
- Educational Gardens

Drought Tolerant Plant Festival

Saturday June 11th 9am to 5pm (Lectures start at 10:00)

Sunday June 12th 9am to 4pm (Kid's events start at 10:30)

Sepulveda Garden Center 16633 Magnolia Blvd Encino, CA 91436

For Times and More Information 818 220 8005 or www.lacss.com

Our website <http://www.waterwisedollarwise.com>

