PADILLA NAMES KHAIM MORTON AS FIELD DEPUTY

Morton to serve areas of Lake View Terrace, Pacoima

LOS ANGELES – City Council President Alex Padilla today named Mr. Khaim Morton as Field Deputy for the areas of Lake View Terrace and Pacoima.

Mr. Morton will work out of the Councilman's Pacoima District Office.

"I am truly excited to welcome Khaim Morton to our staff and to the northeast San Fernando Valley," said Council President Padilla. "Khaim's experience with the City, in addition to his knowledge of constituent concerns will make him an excellent addition to our team. I know that the residents, businesses, and community organizations throughout the Seventh Council District will find him to be a great resource."

Mr. Morton joins the staff of Councilman Padilla after serving in the administration of Mayor James K. Hahn as a Senior Constituent Services representative and as a special liaison to the Department of Building and Safety and the Department of Neighborhood Empowerment. While in the Mayor's office, Mr. Morton assisted with policy directives and operations management. Previously, Mr. Morton had extensive private sector experience, including positions in the Worldwide Corporate Promotions Department at Warner Brothers, at Bank of America, and at Tierra Concepts, an urban planning firm based in Los Angeles.

Mr. Morton is a graduate of California State University, Los Angeles with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science and is a resident of the San Fernando Valley.
