NEW GLASSELL PARK NEIGHBORHOOD COUNCIL TO BE WELCOMED BY LOS ANGELES CITY COUNCIL

WHEN: Tuesday, January 22, 2002, 7:00 p.m.

WHAT: The new Glassell Park Neighborhood Council will be presented with a special certificate of recognition by Councilmembers Eric Garcetti, Nick Pacheco, and Ed Reyes, and representatives of the Mayor's Office and the Department of Neighborhood Empowerment during the special meeting of the Los Angeles City Council to be held at the Kodak Theatre, 6801 Hollywood Boulevard (at Highland). Call (323) 308-6300 for parking information.

WHY: On January 8, 2002, the Glassell Park Neighborhood Council became the third Neighborhood Council in the city to be certified, and first in the Northeast area. They have identified police, fire, paramedics, schools, jobs, parks, taxes, streets, sidewalks, traffic, and graffiti as being among their top priorities.

CONTACT: Bradley (yes, just one name) from the Glassell Park Neighborhood Council at (323) 806-7477.

WEST HILLS NEIGHBORHOOD COUNCIL WILL SEEK CERTIFICATION TUESDAY NIGHT

WHEN: Tuesday, January 22, 2002, 6:30 p.m.

WHAT: The Board of Neighborhood Commissioners will be asked to approve their staff's recommendation to certify the West Hills Neighborhood Council. If approved, they would become the first certified Neighborhood Council in the San Fernando Valley.

WHERE: DeVry Institute of West Hills, 22801 Roscoe Blvd.

CONTACT: Charles Gremer at the West Hills Neighborhood Council (in development) at (818) 348-2873.
