MAYOR HAHN ANNOUNCES WILSHIRE CENTER-KOREATOWN NEIGHBORHOOD COUNCIL 76TH CERTIFIED

LOS ANGELES - Mayor Jim Hahn today announced that the Wilshire Center-Koreatown Neighborhood Council (#76) completed the certification process during a meeting held at Oriental Mission Church in Koreatown.

“Congratulations to the Wilshire Center-Koreatown Neighborhood Council on becoming the 76th Neighborhood Council to complete the certification process,” said Mayor Hahn. “I look forward to seeing great things come out of the Wilshire Center – Koreatown Neighborhood Council as we celebrate the spirit of 76.”

“Steeped in old Hollywood splendor, but infused with vibrancy of a bustling immigrant community, Wilshire Center–Koreatown is a microcosm of Los Angeles,” said Department of Neighborhood Empowerment General Manager Greg Nelson. “This area has an exciting ethnic and socio economic diversity and an immigrant majority striving for the American dream.”

“The vision of the Wilshire Center–Koreatown Neighborhood Council is to create a sustainable, urban village where Angelenos within and outside the area can enjoy a vibrant residential, business, cultural, and entertainment area,” said Wilshire Center–Koreatown Neighborhood Council Acting Chair Gary Russell.
