Planning, Land Use and Transportation Committee

Whereas, residential areas of San Pedro are very close to the West Harbor site,

Therefore, the Coastal San Pedro Neighborhood Council has the following areas of concern for the City Zoning Administrator to take into consideration in formulating conditions for the alcohol sales at West Harbor, which exclude any recommendations on conditions related to the amphitheater as it has not yet been approved:

1. Length of hours of operation
2. Length of hours of alcohol sales
3. Common Consumption Area
4. Impact of noise on the surrounding neighborhoods for the entertainment, amplified sound, pickleball, dog park, etc.
5. Adequate security
6. Cumulative noise impacts at the site

10. Motion recommending actions to combat theft of catalytic converters.

Emergency Preparedness and Public Safety Committee

Resolved, the Coastal San Pedro Neighborhood Council recognizes damage to the public and to human life due to thefts of catalytic converters and calls on the legislative authorities to take action including (a) increased penalties for the theft and for criminal possession of one or more catalytic converters including making it a felony, and (b) creation of a task force or task forces to fight this problem and (c) a crackdown on recyclers and other purchasers.

11. Motion opposing vote-by-mail only neighborhood council elections.

Resolved, the Coastal San Pedro Neighborhood Council opposes the proposal by the city to conduct the 2025 neighborhood council elections solely as vote-by-mail and urges the city to also provide in-person voting locations.
