c. Speech and Presentation by Charles Robbins of The Village Family Services. The Village Family Services is Southern California’s leading bilingual family wellness agency providing a comprehensive range of services to achieve permanency and safety for neglected and abused children and youth. Our approach centers on family wellness amid client-centered, strength-focused, trauma-informed, evidence-based and culturally competent care delivered by a compassionate, bilingual staff. The Village Family Services envisions a day where all children and youth are free of social, emotional, verbal and physical harm.

d. The VNNC to design and print a “Constituent Services Guide” for use in outreach and mailing activities. The CSG will be a beneficial addition to the VNNC’s image to the general public and will help the council bring local services to our constituents. DISCUSSION & POSSIBLE FUNDING ACTION (NTE $1500)

e. Additional Items and Requests

f. Possible Funding Requests

g. Speech and Presentation by Sandy Logan. Mrs. Logan will be gathering support from the Council regarding the Merchant Committed project. The Merchant Committed project reminds stores owners/managers of the “Best Practice” they should already be implementing as part of their CUP (city) and ABC licensing. We want to recognize retailers on their efforts to prevent underage drinking. (15 minutes)

h. Update and request for action on the parking situation on Cedros Street. The VNNC has been addressing an ongoing problem with the residents and the businesses in the area, and has reached out to Councilman Tom LaBonge and his field staff to assist the council in resolving the situation.

9. Old Business

a. Consideration and possible vote on filling vacant seats on the Van Nuys Neighborhood Council. The VNNC will entertain any and all membership applications submitted for vacant seats. -- ACTION ITEM
